

MASTER COURSE IN OPERA INTERPRETATION (1 Semester)

Application open from 15 September until 16 October 2017

This course is for you who has an Opera Bachelor or an equivalent opera education and who wants to work further with vocal technique, interpretation, stage performance and opera repertoire.

The course contains individual lessons in singing and interpretation every week. You work in classes on the repertoire you have chosen. You also have individual lessons lead by a director, master classes and group lessons in movement and language skills. Thanks to our close cooperation with GöteborgsOperan there are opportunities to placements there or at other opera houses in Sweden, as well as openings for a part in one of the Academy's productions.

Your course is examined with a public concert or an opera performance.

APPLICATION until 16 October 2017 at www.universityadmissions.se

AUDITIONS are held on Tuesday 28 Nov. You will have to perform 1–2 arias for a jury.
